

Don Roby

droby@alea.org

Don is the current President of PSAAC and has been a member of the Commission since its inception having previously served as its Secretary. Don is a professional member of the Airborne Law Enforcement Association (ALEA), the National Sheriff's Association (NSA), Helicopter Association International (HAI) and the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP). Currently, Don serves as the ALEA's Training Program Manager, is a member of the NSA's Special Operations Committee, HAI's Government Services Committee and chairs the IACP Aviation Committee. Don is a past recipient of HAI's MD Helicopter Law Enforcement Award. He has been a frequent speaker and presenter on law enforcement aviation matters at the national and international level. Don has also testified in front of the US Congress on various law enforcement aviation issues.

Don Roby has been a member of the Baltimore County Police Department for the past 34 years. Don has worked a variety of assignments throughout his career and currently holds the rank of Captain. Don commanded his agency's Aviation Unit for 10-years and was instrumental in the enhancement of the unit. This includes the transition from piston to turbine aircraft, an increase in flight hours and the integration of enhance technology into the day-to-day operations of the unit.

Don is married and resides in Stewartstown, PA with his wife and family.